AETNA LIFE GAINS DURING 1903.

The decrease in market values of stocks and bonds hast year caused a falling off in the surplus of a great many of our financial institutions, but this was not the case with the old Aetna Life Insursance Company. This company increased its net surplus nearly $20,000, its assets nearly $5,00000 and its life and endowment insurance in force over $12,000,000.

The Aetna Life has been doing business as an independent organization for fifty-four years, and has paid to its policy holders nearly $140,000,000.

This old company is justly noted for its conservatism and good results to its patrons. Its twenty payment life five-year dividend policies have become paid up in fourteen years by the accumulation of dividends, thus making a saving of thirty per cent. of the premiums required in the policy contracts.

The Aetna Life has a large business an Richmond, most of which has been seritten by Mr. W. W. Hardwicke, who has been the active and efficient general agent of the company for the past ten

TODD MUST HAVE ALL

This Is the Decision of Commonwealth's Attorney Wendenburg.

SETTLES HENRICO DISPUTE

Mr. Brauer Has Taken the Matter Under Consideration, The New Law.

In a decision rendered yesterday, Comnonwealth's Attorney Wendenburg directs Mr. W. 11. Brauer, under the recontly enacted laws, to turn over to his money and papers, including the uncollocted bills of 1903.

If this decision is sustained it disposes of the mighty dispute over the trensurership, and particularly over the uncollected levy of last year. The Attorncy-General is said to be of the same opinion as Mr. Wendenburg, and the law applies to all the counties in the State, in a number of which similar conjugations have arisen. The Commonwealth's attorney yesterday informed both Mr. Brauer and Mr. Todd of his

THE NEW LAW.

The now law, designed to settle the old dispute, has itself been made the subject of a disput Coples of it have just been placed in the hands of Mr. Wendenburg, who promptly passed upon it in his decision of yesterday. The section of the act directly bearing upon the case in point reads as follows:

"Where the term of office of a county or city treasurer expires by limitation is shall deliver forthwith to his successor passess!" in including all its masses for taxes and levies, including all its masses for taxes and levies. The receipt so furnished to any treasurer, or his representative, shall be allowed as a credit to the amount thereof in the stituent of his accounts and its amount of tax tickets and levies covered by such receipt shall be charged against his successor in office.

Under this law, Mr. Wendenburg says, Mr. Brauer must turn over everything to his successor, except what he has personally accounted for. When the supervisors instructed Mr. Brauer to complete the uncollected levy of 1903, the old line by implication giving this right to

The House.

The Senate sat for about an hour. President Willard in the schair. Prayer was made by Rev. F. T. McFaden, D. D., of the Presbyterian Church.

A number of bills were introduced and referred to committees. A list of them is printed below by their tities.

At 12:39 P. M., the hour for the special order concurred in by the House yesterday, the senators walked over to the hall of the House of Delegates and there, in Joint session, the two bodies unanimusely confirmed the nomination of Beverly T. Crump to be a member of the Style Corporation Commission for at term of six years, from February 1st, 1904.

The senators returned to their chamber and resumed work, but there was little mere to do. The calendar for the day, a very small affair, was disposed of as far as practicable.

The bill to amend the charter of the town of Waynesboro, originating in the Serate and ordered to its engrossment Trursday, was yesterday taken up and passed. It now goes to the House for concurrence,

Two Senate bills on their first reading were taken up and read, and then passed by until to-day. One of these is to perfect the pure food law; the other to increase the fee to $25 required of applicants for license to practise medicine.

Senator Wickham, of Hanover, proposed and the Senate unanimously adopted a resolution tendering to Clerk Joseph Button, of Appomattox, the condolence of the Senate in the bereavement recently surfered in the death of his mother.

The House.

The House was called to order at noon by Speaker, Ryan, and prayer was offered by Rev. C. A. Marks, of the Luthoran Church.

The only very important bill reported from committee came from General Laws, and was that to create a bureau of insurance. The bill is identically that offered by Mr. Calon at the last session, and provides that the pioposed commission of insurance be elected by the General Assembly.

INTRODUCED AND REFERRED.
The following bills were offered and referred:
By Mr. Garrett—To permit marriage between Herbert David Whirley and Lillie B. Hall in Franklin county.
By Mr. Ould—To make official bonds of all officials of the Brown of the Common of the Brown of t
